Technical Manager

Contract: Full-time, Permanent

Salary: £41,254-£48,418 p.a. (Including LWA)

Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music and Dance is a forward thinking, contemporary and world-class Higher Education Institution with a vision to redefine the conservatoire for the 21st century. At the leading edge of music and dance training, it provides specialist education of the highest quality, which reflects the increasingly collaborative world of artistic practice and supports the lifelong career development of students and professional performing artists.

Under the direction of the Head of Production, this role will take responsibility for all technical areas within the Laban Theatre and other Trinity Laban performance and events spaces. The Technical Manager works closely with the Head of Production in the provision of technical resources across our performance venues providing appropriate proactive and creative support for Trinity Laban's performances and production processes.

Based at the Laban Theatre, the post holder leads the technical team in the practical operation of the theatre spaces, ensuring the highest quality in the presentation of performance work. This involves working in collaboration with multiple staff teams to support the delivery of artistic, academic and venue hire activities, and liaising with students and teaching staff on undergraduate and postgraduate projects and performances. This is a broad role encompassing staff and financial management, scheduling, tutorials with students providing technical advice and support, and technical theatre responsibilities such as maintenance, lighting, sound and stage management.

The post holder is responsible for:

- Scheduling production processes for inhouse rehearsals, workshops and performance.
- Providing technical support to a variety of incoming work including commercial hires and touring/partnership companies.
- Implementing Health and Safety policies and ensuring the safety of all users of performance spaces.
- Routine maintenance and record keeping of technical equipment and theatre installations, including scheduling external inspections.

Several years' experience in a senior practical and administrative role in a working theatre is essential.

As an equal opportunity employer, we positively encourage applications from suitably qualified and eligible candidates regardless of sex, race, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, religion or belief, marital status, or pregnancy and maternity.

INFORMATION ON TRINITY LABAN CONSERVATOIRE OF MUSIC AND DANCE

Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music and Dance is the UK's only conservatoire of music and contemporary dance. The unequalled expertise and experience of its staff, and its world class facilities housed in landmark buildings, put Trinity Laban at the forefront of vocational training in music, musical theatre, and dance.

Our history goes back to 1872 with the founding of Trinity College of Music in London. Trinity College of Music merged with Laban (founded in 1946) in 2005 to create Trinity Laban, now home to a creative and cosmopolitan community of students, teachers and researchers from around the globe.

We have a reputation for innovation and forward-thinking and are focused on training students for life-long careers in our art forms. Each year we welcome over 1,000 students from over 60 countries to follow undergraduate, postgraduate and research programmes. Thousands more people enjoy music, dance and health activities as part of our lively performance and outreach programmes.

Our unrivalled roster of teaching staff includes respected academics, performers, composers and choreographers. Many of them are active researchers who push at the boundaries of their art forms and extend our understanding of artistic and educational practice. We also welcome leading visiting artists, ensembles and companies from around the world, so our students benefit from working directly with today's top performers.

We work together in a number of outstanding locations, including the 17th-century Old Royal Naval College at Greenwich (a World Heritage Site), the Stirling Prize-winning Laban Building in Deptford, and the magnificent Grade II listed Blackheath Halls. Our world-class facilities include state-of-the-art practice rooms and dance studios, flexible performance spaces and internationally famous libraries. Students also have access to the cultural wealth of London, and regularly perform at its leading venues.
