STUDENT RECRUITMENT AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS MANAGER (MAT COVER)

Contract: Full-time, fixed-term

Salary: £33,760- £40,179 p.a. Including LWA

Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music and Dance is a forward thinking, contemporary and world-class Higher Education Institution with a vision to redefine the conservatoire for the 21st century. At the leading edge of music and dance training, it provides specialist education of the highest quality, which reflects the increasingly collaborative world of artistic practice and supports the lifelong career development of students and professional performing artists.

The main remit of the post is to promote to ensure the successful recruitment of students from the UK and overseas to add to an already diverse and talented student body, across music and dance. You will take the lead on managing recruitment from our Asian markets, with a particular focus on East and South East Asia. You will also be responsible for developing and maintaining sustainable partnerships with institutions overseas, supporting the development of joint programmes and staff and student exchange.

The post holder will further develop mutually beneficial relationships with schools, agents and partners, whilst developing new contacts for Trinity Laban. You will identify and leverage promotional opportunities across target markets, attending targeted educational events, and hold presentations with schools and recruitment fairs. You will organise overseas auditions, masterclasses and workshops, working closely with Academic colleagues. You will work closely with colleagues in Learning and Participation, Registry and Alumni Relations, to ensure that Trinity Laban recruits suitable students from diverse backgrounds, to meet our programme and instrument needs.

Educated to degree level, and ideally fluent in Mandarin, you will have a minimum of two years' experience of a relevant role in education or arts administration. You will have a strong understanding of educational recruitment practices and marketing and communications skills, including use of Chinese social media platforms. You will be able to confidently represent the Conservatoire internally and externally to a range of stakeholders including senior management and government or embassy officials. Experience and knowledge of music and/or dance and/or working in an HE environment would be extremely desirable.

As an equal opportunities employer we positively encourage applications from suitably qualified and eligible candidates regardless of sex, race, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, religion or belief, marital status, or pregnancy and maternity.

Please note all applications submitted will be shortlisted anonymously by our recruiting panel, so please ensure that your name and personal details are not included within your supporting statement, otherwise we will not be able to consider your application.

If you think this might be just the job for you, please register an account with our eRecruitment system (or login if you have an account) and complete an online application form using the following link <https://jobs.trinitylaban.ac.uk/>

Closing Date: Tuesday 26th August 2024 at 23:59 hours BST (No Agencies)

Interview Date: 5th and/or 6th September 2024 (TBC)

INFORMATION ON TRINITY LABAN CONSERVATOIRE OF MUSIC AND DANCE

Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music and Dance is the UK's only conservatoire of music and contemporary dance. The unequalled expertise and experience of its staff, and its world class facilities housed in landmark buildings, put Trinity Laban at the forefront of vocational training in music, musical theatre, and dance.

Our history goes back to 1872 with the founding of Trinity College of Music in London. Trinity College of Music merged with Laban (founded in 1946) in 2005 to create Trinity Laban, now home to a creative and cosmopolitan community of students, teachers and researchers from around the globe.

We have a reputation for innovation and forward-thinking, and are focused on training students for life-long careers in our art forms. Each year we welcome over 1,000 students from over 60 countries to follow undergraduate, postgraduate and research programmes. Thousands more people enjoy music, dance and health activities as part of our lively performance and outreach programmes.

Our unrivalled roster of teaching staff includes respected academics, performers, composers and choreographers. Many of them are active researchers who push at the boundaries of their art forms, and extend our understanding of artistic and educational practice. We also welcome leading visiting artists, ensembles and companies from around the world, so our students benefit from working directly with today's top performers.

We work together in a number of outstanding locations, including the 17th-century Old Royal Naval College at Greenwich (a World Heritage Site), the Stirling Prize-winning Laban Building in Deptford, and the magnificent Grade II listed Blackheath Halls. Our world-class facilities include state-of-the-art practice rooms and dance studios, flexible performance spaces and internationally famous libraries. Students also have access to the cultural wealth of London, and regularly perform at its leading venues.
